Dear Sandra,

We're having a wonderful holiday here at Lake Balaton in Hungary. The weather's lovely and there are lots of things to do. We've seen the ruins of the castle in Szigliget on top of the hill. The view of the lake was fascinating from up there! Of course we go to the beach every day, swim and have fun in the water and sunbathe. I've already got a nice tan!

Hope you're having a great holiday, too!

See you soon.

1.

Mary Curie was a - - - - and she was - - - - woman to win a Nobel Prize.

- A) singer / the first
- B) scientist / the most
- C) scientist / the first
- D) doctor / the last

2.

Jane : Who invented the automobile?
George : Karl Benz invented the first automobile in 1885.
Jane : What was his aim?
George : His aim was - - - -

Which of the following completes the dialogue?

- A) to spread communication.
- B) to increase personal mobility and freedom.
- C) to start agriculture.
- D) to protect people from diseases.

3.

Linda : Do you know Aziz Sancar?

Dave : No, I don't know. Who is he?

Linda : - - - -

Dave : I feel ashamed. He is an important man.

Which of the following completes the dialogue?

- A) He is a famous doctor.
- B) He is a biochemist who won the Nobel Prize in 2015.
- C) He is an actor.
- D) He is the inventor of computer.

Mary : What happened in 1450?

Nancy : Johannes Gutenberg invented the printing press.

Mary : Oh! It was very important.

B)

C)

5.

Your friend has a science project about first automobile. He doesn't know anything. You know this subject and you want to help.

You say:

- A) I don't know this subject, too. I can't help.
- B) I don't like automobiles. You have to do this lonely.
- C) I know this subject well. Would you like to study together?
- D) Automobiles are boring. Let's choose another subject.

Invention	Year	Inventor
Printing press	1450	Johannes Gutenberg
Telephone	1876	Graham Bell
Light bulb	1879	Thomas Edison
Computer	1939	John Atanasoff

According to the table, which of the following is false?

- A) Printing press was invented by Johannes Gutenberg.
- B) Telephone was invented in 1879.
- C) Thomas Edison invented the light bulb.
- D) Computer was invented by John Atanasoff in 1939.

Answer the questions 7-9 according to the text below.

GRAHAM BELL

- Alexander Graham Bell was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on March 3, 1847.
- He received his early schooling from his father.

- On March 7, 1876, Bell was granted his telephone patent. A few days later, he made the first-ever telephone call to Watson, allegedly uttering the now-famous phrase, "Mr. Watson, come here. I want you."
- He died on August 2, 1922.

7. According to the information, Graham Bell - - - -

- A) had six children.
- B) moved to United States in 1870.
- C) married Mabel Hubbard in 1872.
- D) made the first telephone call in 1876.

8. Thomas Watson - - - -

- A) was a brother of Graham Bell.
- B) was the partner of Bell.
- C) invented the telephone by himself.
- D) died in 1922.

9. According to the information, which of the following is false?

- A) Graham Bell married on July 11, 1877.
- B) His two sons died as infants.
- C) He had come up with a simple receiver that could turn electricity into sound with the help of Thomas Watson.
- D) He divorced his wife in 1876.

1.

- I. Who is Thomas Edison?
- II. He invented the electric light in 1879.
- III. He is the inventor of the light bulb.
- IV. When did he invent light bulb?

What is the correct order of the dialogue?

- A) I - IV - III - II
C) I - III - IV - II

- B) I - II - IV - III
D) III - I - II - IV

2.

- Maria : What do you think about the most important invention?
Elizabeth : I think, telephone is the most important invention.
Maria : Why do you think?
Elizabeth : Because - - - -

Which of the following completes the dialogue?

- A) Communication is important for everyone.
B) I don't like talking on the phone.
C) Electric is more important than it.
D) Computer is more important for me.

3.

(I.) There have been many inventions for the last 500 years. (II.) These inventions are very important for humanity. (III.) I think the most important is computer. (IV.) They make our life easier.

Which of the following is not suitable for the text?

A) I.

B) II.

C) III.

D) IV.

Answer the questions 4-6 according to the text below.

THOMAS EDISON

- He was an American inventor who invented the light bulb.

- In 1886, he married Mina Miller.
- In 1878, Thomas Edison began serious research into developing a practical incandescent lamp and on October 14, 1878, Edison filed his first patent application for "Improvement In Electric Lights"
- Edison died on October 18, 1931.

4. According to the information, which one is false?

- A) He married twice.
- B) He published his newspaper at the age 12.
- C) He gained his first patent in 1878.
- D) He had five children.

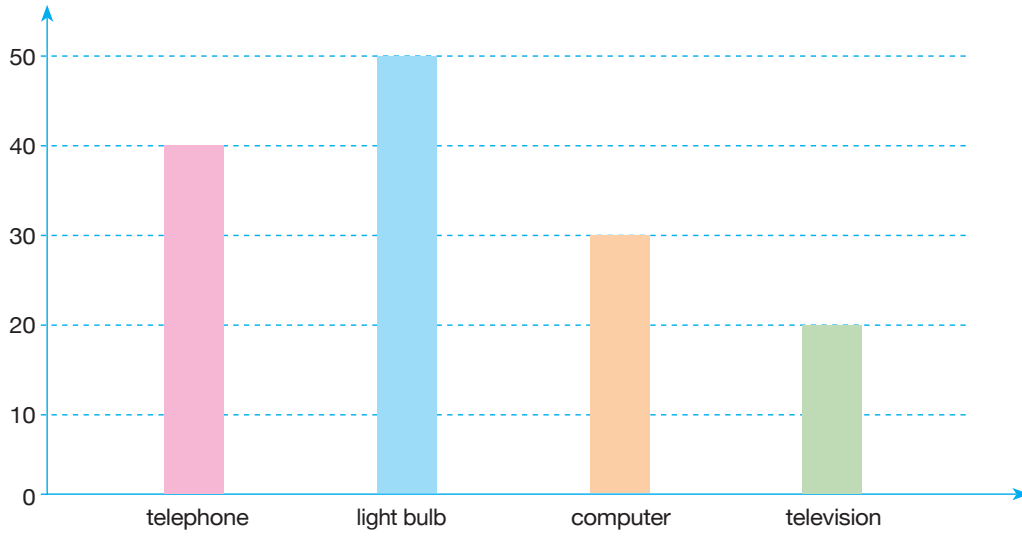

5. In 1878, - - - - .

- A) he died.
- B) he began serious research about a practical incandescent lamp.
- C) he began publishing his newspaper.
- D) he was born.

6. In 1871, - - - -

- A) he married his second wife Mina Miller.
- B) he filed his first patent.
- C) he married Mary Stilwell.
- D) he had his first children.

Answer the questions 7-8 according to the table below.

This survey shows that people say the most important inventions for them.

7. According to the results, which one is true?

- A) Light bulb is the most trivial invention of all time.
- B) Computer is more important than telephone.
- C) Light bulb is the most important invention for people.
- D) Television is the most significant invention for all the people.

8. According to the graph, telephone - - - -

- A) is more important than light bulb.
- B) is the most important invention for all the time.
- C) is worse than television.
- D) is the second important invention for people.

9.

- I. I have a science project about airplanes.
- II. I know the Wright Brothers who were aviation pioneers.
- III. What do you know about airplanes?
- IV. This is good. Keep on researching.

What is the correct order of the dialogue?

- A) I - IV - III - II
- B) I - III - II - IV
- C) II - IV - I - III
- D) III - IV - II - I

10.

The teacher gives students homework. Your subject is the first computer and your friend's subject is the first telephone. You want to change your subject with your friend.

You say:

- A) I am interested in computers. This homework is good for me.
- B) I don't like telephone. I like my subject.
- C) I am interested in telephones. Can you give me your subject?
- D) I want to study about computers. I can't change it.

Hi! I am Greg. I am a student at London College. I like science lesson the most and I always read scientific magazines. I want to learn more about the planets and space. In the future I want to be a famous astronaut. At home, I like surfing on the Net and doing experiments. These days, I am reading about space tourism. I think lots of people will travel to space soon. I think it's amazing.

According to the information, which website should Greg visit?

- A) www.sportsnews.com
- B) www.easy-recipes.com
- C) www.solarsystem.nasa.com
- D) www.high-technology.com

2. Look at the poster and complete the sentence.

If you want to learn more about science and do lots of experiments, we are waiting for you.

There will be lots of fun activities about Physics, Biology and Chemistry.

11-16 April 2020
City Hall
From 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Free Entrance

People - - - -

- A) can do experiments at this fair.
- B) visit this fair for two weeks.
- C) should pay some money before they enter.
- D) learn about history at science.

3. Read the information below and choose the best answer.

Name: Stephen Hawking
Occupation: Physicist
Place of birth: Oxford, England
Date of birth: 8 January 1942
Awards: Wolf Prize in Physics, Albert Einstein Award in 1978 and lots of medals

According to the chart, which question DOES NOT have an answer?

- A) What are the names of his prizes?
- B) Where is he from?
- C) What does Stephen Hawking do?
- D) What's his disease called?

4. Read the text and answer the question.

I want to invent some new robots for the disabled people and make their lives easier.

Mark, Italy

I'm interested in conducting experiments. I usually examine cells of living structures. My Biology teacher helps me a lot and I have great fun in her lesson.

Luke, Spain

I want to be an astronaut when I grow up so I always read and watch about space. I want to learn more about the universe.

Jane, Germany

I think excavation areas are great. I like visiting these places and learn more about fossils.

Hale, Turkey

Who is observing scientific actions?

- A) Luke
- B) Hale
- C) Jane
- D) Mark

5.

Hello everyone! I am Zane. I am a student at a Science School. I am at the science lab now. My friends are very busy at the moment. Kate is viewing some specimens. She is very careful and concentrated. Jennifer is writing an essay about different vaccines in the past. She likes researching and doing projects very much. Justin is reading a book about nanotechnology. I think learning about science is very exciting and fun.

Who is using a microscope?

- A) Zane B) Kate C) Jennifer D) Justin

6. Susan and Martin decided to read a book. Here are their interests.

Susan's interests:	Martin's interests:
space and black holes, astronomy, animal clones, biographies of scientists	fossils, life of inventors, human anatomy

Choose a book that both Susan and Martin will enjoy reading together?

- A)  B)  C)  D)

7. Mr. Jackson asked his 100 students about the most important inventions throughout the history. Here are the results:

The most important invention	The number of students
The Internet	50
Compass	10
Telephone	20
Printing Press	15
Dishwasher	5

According to the results, which of the following is CORRECT?

- A) Nearly half of the students think that the invention of the dishwasher is great.
 B) The number of the students who think that compass is the most important invention is equal to the number of the students who think that telephone is the most important invention.
 C) Students mostly love inventions about transportation.
 D) The Internet changed the world most according to the students.
8. Look at the chart and choose the wrong matching.

Inventor	Invention	Discoverer	Discovery
Gutenberg	The water screw	Marie Curie	Radio

- A) Gutenberg B) Radio C) The water screw D) Marie Curie

1.

Hi, my name is Lisa. I love searching, especially about science. In these days, I'm looking for inventions and inventors. For example, in the 1920s, British scientist Alexander Fleming was working in his laboratory at St. Mary's Hospital in London when almost by accident, he discovered a naturally growing substance that could attack certain bacteria. Its name is Antibiotics. The term antibiotics literally means "against life"; in this case, against microbes.

In this paragraph, there is NO information about the invention's - - - .

- A) date B) name C) owner D) awards

According to another account, Laika was rescued by an alien entity and given human level intelligence and human voice (taken from cosmonaut Marinka Talanou.)

Which of the following question DOES NOT have an answer in the text above?

- A) Did Laika die in space?
- B) When did Laika go to the space?
- C) Where did she go?
- D) Who sent Laika to the space?

6. Find the odd one.

There were a lot of scientific achievements in the past and they changed our world. (I) For example, Thomas Edison invented the light bulb and (II) Alexander Fleming worked hard to find a solution to bacterial infections. (III) After lots of research, he investigated the first antibiotic. (IV) Albert Einstein got the Nobel Prize in Physics. Archimedes discovered the water screw. It was one of the most important development of that time.

- A) I
- B) II
- C) III
- D) IV

7. According to the picture, choose the best option to fill in the blank.

The scientists are - - - -.

- A) doing an experiment to test the effects of the drug.
- B) vaccinating sick people against dangerous illnesses.
- C) looking for some information on the Net for their science project.
- D) reading a science magazine about the investigation.

8. According to the pictures and speech bubbles, which one is WRONG?

I'm operating the machine.

I'm looking into the sky through a telescope.

I'm viewing some soil samples under the microscope.

I'm doing researches on the Internet for my science project.

You have no idea about smartphones but your brother has a lot of information about them.

You want to buy one and you say to him:

- A) I don't need a smartphone. Thank you.
- B) I need a smartphone but I don't know anything about them. Can you help me?
- C) If you need me, I can help you.
- D) My phone is a smartphone, I don't want another one.

Alicia : Do you know something about the first compass?

Linda : - - - - ?

Alicia : It is an instrument containing a magnetized pointer which shows the direction of magnetic North and bearings from it.

Which one completes the dialogue?

- A) I know about compass.
- B) I don't like using compass.
- C) I don't know. What is compass?
- D) Can you help me when I search it?

Answer the questions 3-5 according to the table below.

Sally	Television
George	Automobile
Alex	Airplane
Daisy	Printing Press

This table shows the subjects of the students about their favourite inventions for their projects.

3. Which one is false?

- A) Sally chooses searching about television.
- B) George must know Karl Benz.
- C) Alex's subject is about aviation.
- D) Daisy's subject is about radios.

4. Alex - - - -

- A) searches something about telephone.
- B) has to know something about The Wright Brothers.
- C) likes the subject of printing press.
- D) hates smartphones.

5. Daisy - - - -

- A) chooses the subject about press.
- B) likes aviation.
- C) is interested in transportation.
- D) is keen on soap operas.

You want to search about the light bulb but your computer is broken. You want to help from your friend.

You go and say:

- A) I searched about the light bulb. I finished.
- B) I need your PC to search about the light bulb. Can I borrow it?
- C) I don't need any computer, I have a PC.
- D) I don't like my subject. I'll change it. Can you help me?

7.

With the help of - - - - , the theory of "Universal Graviation" is formed. He was interested in gravity.

Which one completes the sentence?

- A) Isaac Newton
- B) Edison
- C) Karl Benz
- D) Graham Bell

Answer the questions 8-10 according to the text below.

Science is both a body of knowledge and a process. Science involves a pursuit of knowledge covering general truths or the operations of fundamental laws. There are many advantages for humankind. Science makes our life easier, it improves the quality of life, it helps us to better know and understand other cultures and society. Everyone must rely on science and progress with it.

8. Which one is false?

- A) There are many advantages for humankind.
- B) Science makes our life harder.
- C) Science is both a body of knowledge and process.
- D) Science improves the quality of life.

9. Science - - - -

- A) involves a pursuit of knowledge.
- B) helps us to better know and understand other cultures.
- C) has many disadvantages.
- D) has a lot of benefits.

10. Everyone - - - -

- A) has to know what is science.
- B) hates science.
- C) doesn't like searching for knowledge.
- D) must rely on and progress with science.

- C) Michael
- D) Robert

1.

Causes of Global Warming

- Burning fossil fuels
- Deforestation
- Greenhouse gases
- - - - -?

Which of the following is suitable for the blank?

- A) Solar energy
B) Recycle
C) Fertilisers
D) Forestation

2.

Mike : Dad, what are you doing?
Dad : I brush my teeth, what is the problem?
Mike : You waste water. Please, - - - -

Which of the following completes the dialogue?

- A) turn off the faucet.
B) turn on the lights.
C) use solar energy.
D) turn on the faucet.

3.

Which of the following shows the picture?

- A) Flood
B) Earthquake
C) Avalanche
D) Lightning

4.

Natural forces

- Earthquake
- Drought
- Tornado

Answer the questions 5-7 according to the dialogue below.

DROUGHT

A drought is not a period of low rainfall. A drought is a period of low water levels in the ground. This means plants don't grow. And this means lakes and rivers dry out. Of course, low rainfall often leads to low ground-water levels. The word drought comes from an old English word 'drought'. It can happen in most parts of the world, but the worst droughts in history have been in India, China, Russia and East Africa. Droughts happen at any time of the year, but they are common in the summer. They happen because there is not enough rainfall and the people are using the water in the ground. Finally, droughts bring deaths to plants, animal and people. In droughts in the past, in India, China and East Africa millions of people have died. Droughts also bring fires and sometimes huge forest burn.
